This was at a time when Mumbai was donning on the apparel of a metropolitan, and the Mumbai stock market was gradually making its transition from a nascent existence to an emerging market. Mr. Nemidas Hemchand had come to this city of dreams to achieve his very own dreams. He acquired the stock exchange membership card for just Rs. 5/- An incredibly miniscule amount, considering the crores worth of value that it commands today. Mr. Nemidas Hemchand is among the founder members of the Mumbai Stock Exchange.

With the passage of time, Mr. Nemidas and his firm's popularity also grew by the day. Inspired by this success, Mr. Nemidas took his son, Mr. Harjivandas also into the organisations fold, and he, in turn, coupled with the popularity, increased the prosperity of the firm manifold. Mr. Harjivandas met with his sad demise in the year 1918. His successor Mr. Pranjivandas, with his acute foresight, also toured the US and European stock markets, and interacted with the Heads of different international stock exchanges. From here flowing the upstream of the firm's success, and today, it enjoys the repute of having evolved among the most successful firms through all the upheavels of the stock markets.

In today's times, wherein the investment markets are in the melting pot, mutual funds are competing cut-throat for market share. In this state of flux as well, this firm's fourth generation entrepreneurs, Mr. Prasann Broker and Mr. Jayant Broker enjoy unflinching trust and respect from the investment heads of financial institutions and mutual funds. To speak the least, the firm's management is further moving on towards establishing cordial relations with the entire plethora of institutions, both domestic and offshore under the supervision of the fifth generation entrepreneurs, Mr. Udayan Broker and Mr. Kartik Broker.
